The Mind's Eye

by Diana Sears

When asked recently to choose the most remarkable view in my experience I was unable to select only one. In answer, a slide show that ranges from amazing to soothing passes through my mind's eye.

As a traveler I have been amazed by the depth and color of the Grand Canyon, the thunder and mist of Niagara Falls and the shimmer of Northern Lights over an Oregon beach on an August night. There are certain snow-capped peaks, Mt Hood in Oregon and Mt Washington in New Hampshire, whose images combine with memories of hiking and camping through-out my life.

There are awesome man-made marvels: the girders of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the arch of the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco, and the inspiration of the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor.

Two views most often called to mind, however, are far less grand. I hold dear the first glimpse on a hot and humid summer day of the wide stretch of Lake Winnepesaukee in New Hampshire which promised a deliciously cooling swim just as soon as I could change into my swim suit. Here on the coast of Oregon, there lies what I have named my Friday View. As Sandlake Road descends into Tierra Del Mar, the expanse of ocean whether placidly calm or breaking on the shore in a foaming frenzy, it presents an opportunity to breathe deeply and bask in the glory of the natural world.

The wonder of these scenes is that they are readily available in my mind's eye. I hope you, too, have a catalog of such images to carry you beyond the present. ~ Diana Sears

GAGE LLC
RESIDENTIAL CONTRACTOR

We are a small family-owned and operated business, with our shop and office located in Beaver on Hwy 101. We are Heidi and Jacob Holzgrafe and we started GAGE LLC in August of 2018.

Jacob is a general contractor and has over twenty years of experience in all aspects of residential repair and remodel. We take great pride in our work, love our coastal communities, employ local workers and greatly value the relationships we establish with our customers.

No job is too big or too small. Jacob can do just about anything, but specializes and enjoys custom carpentry, metal fabrication and taking on one-of-a-kind or challenging projects. We know that every job is unique and each customer has a vision and expectations. We know the importance of clear and timely communication, as well as a good old fashion hand shake.

We live, work and have three kids growing up here in South County. Our goal is to be an active part of our community and grow a successful local coastal business by meeting the needs of people in our community.

Please call us anytime at 503-919-0764 for a FREE ESTIMATE or to discuss your project. Check out our website Gagelconstruction.com for more information

Coastal Weaver

I've been weaving off and on for 50 years. I learned at a public adult school in San Francisco, fell in love with the process and the product, and acquired a loom.

I've been weaving placemats, table runners and rag rugs professionally for several years, but recently added spinning to my repertoire and am now weaving wool rugs with yarn I have spun.

My work is available right here at the Community Center Gift Shop, as well as other venues listed in the ad. Rugs, table runners, and placemats can also be custom ordered by contacting me at ccjonesred@gmail.com. You may order preferred size, color, and pattern.

Remember to keep all local artisans in mind when buying gifts and personal items. ~ Cathy
